Work-Life Employee Assistance Program

However big or small an issue may be, it's good to know you can always reach out to us. LifeCare is a Work-Life Employee Assistance Program (Work-Life EAP) benefit. Your employer and ADP Resource® have made it available to you and your family. We are here for you with resources and guidance to help with parenting, senior care, home services, wellness, legal, financial services, or whatever personal challenge you might face. Our specialists are available 24/7, 365 days a year.

Emotional Health Call today for your choice of 3 EAP sessions, face to face or by telephone, per person per concern per year (up to 9 sessions total).
